“A Tribute To Our Bible School Teachers”

I dreamed the pearly gates were opened wide, & I had entered in, for I had died; & now I must give account for all my acts, I saw a book there opened within these facts.

I thought “my role upon this earth was small, just teaching in a Bible class, my call”. For I saw all the saints of God up there, & mine was, at most, a meager share.

I heard the Maser call for my report; I stood afraid, for mine was short. I trembled & felt I would not pass, then whispered, “I taught a Bible class”.

And from the throne I heard His voice, “Well done, come in & share eternal life, thou faithful one, although your place was humble & obscure, you led the thirsty ones to waters pure”.

And then it seemed that from eternal plains, there came the sound of voices in refrain, that rolled across the mighty sea of glass, they are great...the teachers of a Bible class.

HAVE YOU THANKED OUR TEACHERS?
